

1st Welsh Olympic Trap Welsh Selection Shoot – 1st April 2012

High Gun of the day shot by Aaron Meggison 92 ex100

The first Olympic Trap Welsh Selection Shoot for 2012 took place at Griffin-Lloyd Shooting Ground on the 1st April 2012. Weather conditions for this time of year were fabulous, the sun shone with high temperatures. A good turnout of shooters included faces from the past and new, where youngsters have taken the plunge and moved across from the domestic disciplines to this non forgiving Olympic discipline.

Talking of a face from the past and congratulations to Aaron Meggison who shot High Gun of the day nailing 92 ex100.

A new face and congratulations to young shooter Owen Huffer who beginning of this year moved to OT having excelled to a high level in DTL. Talented shooter 18 year old Owen shot 85 ex100 and made the top six welsh shooters making the single barrel final nailing 20 for a total score of 127 finishing 5th.

Good to see red marker on the scoreboard indicating shooters shot a 25 straight achieved by Owen Huffer, Mark Evans, Aaron Meggison and Jonathan Davis.

Over 100 targets Aaron Meggison shot 92 to be High Gun followed closely by Mark Evans and Mark Hampton equalling on 91, Scott Morgan 90, Phil Dando 86, equalling on 85 Graham Evans, Owen Huffer and Clive Jones, 84 Mike Meggison.
