

1st Commonwealth Shooting Federation (European Division) Welsh Team Selection Shoot for Universal Trench and Double Trap - 23rd June 2012 at Griffin-Lloyd S.G.

Griffin-Lloyd Shooting Ground hosted the 1st Commonwealth Shooting Federation (CSF) European Division (ED) Welsh selection shoot for Universal Trench and Double Trap on Saturday 23rd June, 2012.

Weather conditions varied throughout the day with sunny intervals and cloud changing the lighting for shooters and making the targets more testing.

Universal Trench HG shot by Alan Williams 90 ex 100

The Universal Trench was shot on B Layout where shooters shot 100 targets over four rounds. Well done to Alan Williams who shot High Gun of the Day nailing 90 targets. Charlie Snelgrove closely chasing Alan's tail finished one target behind on 89 followed by Scott Morgan 88, Graham Evan and Jackie Lewis 86, Rob Parry 84 and Ian Jones 81.

The Welsh team selection for Universal Trench consists of four seniors and four ladies.

Double Trap HG shot by Graham Evans 70 ex 90

Double Trap took place on A layout where shooters shot 15 pairs over three rounds a total of 90 Targets. Well done to Graham Evans for shooting High Gun nailing 70 targets, followed by Geoff Seaborne 49, George Seaborne 46, H Baler 44 and Tim Hawkins 41.

Team selection for Double Trap to complete at this match consists of four seniors.

The next selection shoot will take place on the Sunday 27th July 2012 at Griffin-Lloyd S.G. entries for Double Trap 10 am and Universal Trench 12 noon.

If you have not shot Double Trap and/or Universal Trap and would like to “have a go” the layouts will be available throughout the day.

Ranking Lists and Selection Criteria are available on the WCTSA website.